

A photograph of an outdoor event, likely a charity gala or fundraiser, held in a park-like setting with large trees. In the foreground, a man in a purple shirt, green suspenders, a green bow tie, and a white top hat with a green band is waving. Next to him, a woman in a pink top, a wide-brimmed white hat, and a green skirt with white polka dots is also waving. In the background, other people are visible, some wearing white t-shirts with logos. The scene is set on a grassy area with large trees and a clear sky.
